Liveapout, March 28, 1851.

The arrival of the Cambria, on the eve of departure of the last steamer, with accounts considered by holders confirmatory of the short crop estimates, created considerable buoyancy in our cotion market, in anticipation of later advices, then daily expected by the Europa. Prices advanced fully 34d per lb., the sales for the day reaching 12,000 bales, but no diminution, but rather an increase in the receipts being reported by the latter vescel, our market lost much of its animation, and though the business of the week sums up to 47,700 bales, with 14,360 to speculators, and 1900 bales to exporters, yet an increased desire to realize has been apparent, and prices have again receded 3ad per lb., the market closing steadily, but quietly, at an improvement of 3d per lb. on last week's quotations. Sales to-day, 7,000 bales, principally to the trade.

of last year of 420,000 bales, of which 320,000 were American.

We have experienced rather more steadiness in eur corn market, in consequence of a temporary cessation of heavy shipments of grain and flour from the continent; and prices of wheat and Indian corn have slightly advanced, the former being quoted at 5 eid a 5s 19d for red, and 6s a 6s 3d per 70lbs, for white; the latter, 30s for mixed, 31s for yellow, and 32s per quarter for white. Flour, in moderate demand, at 19s a 21s per bbl. for Western Canai; Canada and Ohio, 20s 6d a 21s 6d; Baltimore and Philadelphia, 22s a 22s 6d; and sour, 18s 6d a 18s per bbl. Indian corn meal, 14s 6d per bbl.

The sales of rosin, for the week, are 1,000 bbis., at 3s 3d a 3s 4d for common, up to 7s 9d per cwt. for fine quality. Nothing doing in turpentine.

LIVERPOOL COTTON MARKET.

MARCH 22.—The sales to-day amount to 12,000 bales, including 4,500 American, 200 Egyptian, and 1,000 Surat, on speculation. Americans under 7 ½d, per 1b, are ½d, higher, and all other kinds, ½d per 1b, dearer. The advance to-day is caused by the Canada's news of an increase of 1c in the New York market, said to be caused by smaller estimates of the crop from the South. The sales consist of 9,000 American; 800 Pernam and Maranham, 7½d, a 8½d, 1,500 Bahla, 7½d, a 7½d, 1,100 Egyptian, 7½d, a 8½d, 1,500 Surat, 4½d, a 5½d.

March 24.—The sales to-day amount to 8,000 bales, including 1,500 American and 500 Surat on speculation. The market closed firmly, but with more sellers than on Saturday. The sales consist of about 5,500 American, 200 Pernam and Maranham, 7½d, to 8½d, 1,200 Surat, 4½d, to 8½d, 300 Egyptian, 7½d, to 8½d, 1,200 Surat, 4½d, to 5½d.

March 25.—The sales to-day are 3,000 bales, all to the trade, with a tame, flat market. Prices are now about 12d rest, bicker than on Feiday last. The sales in-Manca 26.—The sales to-day are 3,000 bales, all to the trade, with a tame, flat market. Prices are now about 34d, per lb. higher than on Friday last. The sales include about 2,400 American; 300 Egyptian, 7,½d, to 9,½d, and 300 Surat, 4,½d, to 5,½d.

March 26.—The sales to-day are 7,000 bales, of which 5,000 are American; 500 Egyptian, and 700 Surats. About 1,800 of the above have been taken by speculative buyers. The market has been more firm and spirited than yesterday. On comparing prices with last week's closing quotations we find Orieans and Mobile a clear ½d, and boweds ½d, to ½d, higher; Brazils and Sumats were also ½d, higher; in other sorts there is little change. March 27.—The sales to-day amount to 7,000 bales, including 1,500 American, 200 Pernam and More porting the advance before noticed. The sales consist of about 5,750 American, 200 Pernam and Maraham, 8d, to 8½d, 400 Surat, 4½d, to 8d, 200 Egyptian, 7¼d. 1084d, 400 Surat, 4½d, to 5½d. Lospon Coan Exchange, March 28 -After a fortnight

Lowbox Coan Exchange, March 28 — After a fortnight of almost incessant rains—which have prevailed also in France to the south, and lately in Scotland to the north—we have to-day a northwest wind and clear weather, (this time last year we had very sever frosts.) Many of the lowlands are, we hear, fleoded, and the early sown barleys are said to be suffering. The wheat crops are, in general, reported strong, and not too forward; of course, however, in flooded spots, they must suffer also. The arrivals this week are very short, and were it not for the supplies of French flour, we should soon be sweeping up the granaries; meanwhile all the foreign flour together arrived here since Christmas would scarcely feed the town a fortnight, but being mostly of inferior quality, it will only sell when home-made is short, and unless the foreigners come over soon and help to eat it off, they may have to take some of it back again. Meanwhile the French market, which was rising lately, has turned dull again, and reacts upon ours. Four large harvests— La propriéte c'est le voi—and the unusually high price of riller keep down the prices of four, corn, and all sorts of produce in France, and must continue to affect prices. cilver keep down the prices of four, corn, and all sorts of produce in France, and must continue to affect prices here. Wheat—Market dull and spiritless; fine sweet white Dantzie is so scarce that it would readily sell at over 50s, which would not pay the importer. The average price of English wheat is higher here than last year, though the quality is, perhaps, many shillings worse. Barley—Prime malting samples of Chevalier yery scarce, and worth over 30s. Outs are slowly crawling up, aithough prices are now 1s. to 2s, higher than they were last year, for our crop was deficient, and although Ireland has sent more cuts than for some years past, our stocks are very low; and during the second quarter last year the supplies amounted to mearly 30,000 quarters weekly. Flour—Market dull, from the causes above stated.

Telegraphic Summary.

We have only room this morning to refer to our telegraphic despatches for the latest news. We wish, however, to draw the public attention to the fact that the Webster resolutions were taken up in our State Senate, yesterday, discussed, and referred to the Committee on Federal Relations. These resolutions have already been published. It will also be observed that the Attorney-General has given an opinion adverse to the constitutionality of the canal enlargement bill.

Arrival of the Steamers Africa and Wash-Ington-European News.

The arrival of the Africa and the Washington steamers, at this port, from Liverpool, and from Southampton, respectively, after short passages, has put us in possession of our files of European journals, and of our regular correspondence. is one week later; and that connected with the cotton market, which shows another advance in this staple, has been received with great satisfaction in this metropolis, such a result being scarcely anticipated. American securities have advanced also in London.

The English news is highly interesting. The Ecclesiastical Titles Bill has been read a second time in the House of Commons, by an overwhelming majority. Miss Talbot's case has added fuel to the flames, and will lead to legislative interference with the Catholic customs and privileges. Of course, here will be a severe struggle; and when Lord Stanley runs against the popular Protestant current in the House of Lords, the excitement will be at its height.

The reception of the United States frigate St. Lawrence, at Southampton, is so fully noticed elsewhere, that further comment is unnexessary for the present.

There seems to be a full belief in Europe, that with the warm weather of spring there will be warm work on the part of the European revolutionists. We have frequently mentioned June as the month most likely to exhibit outbreaks, but our advices place the probability as early as May. It is quite evident that a very important organization is going on, which may be accelerated and rendered more important, by the fact that the World's Fair will act as a cloak for the designs of those engaged in

The news from Italy, France, and Turkey, will be found interesting to the reader; and we refer, in consequence of the crowded state of our columns, to our correspondence, for an elucidation of the in telligence generally.

SEWARD AND VAN BUREN-MORE ABOLITION AGITATION-BOTH IN THE FIELD .- Those distinguished worthies, John Van Buren and William H. Seward, have recently written letters to the Abolition Convention, now in session in Boston, in which they denounce the Fugitive Slave law, the Southern States, Southern institutions, and almost denounce the constitution itself. These letters are addressed to a convention of fanatics, who repudiate the Bible, the constitution, the institutions of the Southern States, and everything but their own narrow and contracted notions; and many of whose speakers counsel a resort to arms, and insurrection and civil war, in resistance of the constitution, and laws passed under it. Mr. Van Buren, quoting the opinion of some one else, says, that disobedience to laws is the only way sometime left for testing their constitutionality. William H. Sessord declares that any despotic government would awaken sedition from its profoundest slumbers by such a bill; and he says, further, that agitation of slavery in this republic, whether beneficial or otherwise, is as inseparable from our political organization as the winds and clouds are from the atmosphere which excircles the earth. He also denounces the whole of the compromise measures of the last session of Congress, at one fell swoop. It will be seen from these letters who are the agitators of the North. Mr. Van Buren has been politically known as a democrat, and Wm. H. Seward as a whig, but now they are united on the same platform; they address ahe same convention, denounce the constitution in the same way, and uphold the same system of agitation, which can lead to nothing but the most disastrous results be tween the North and the South in a short time The letters and premenciaments of these leading agitators acquire more force and this particular time than they otherwise would, in consequence of the exciting scenes in Bosten, which are almost revolutionary in their character, arising from carrying into effect the provision s of the con titution relative to the fugitive slave Simms, in that sity. These letters are published i, 7 the leading abolition journals of this city—the Probuse on the whig side, and the Erening Post on the democintic. A system of resistance to the const itution and the laws is now openly counselled by the sultras of the North, as well as opposition to Souther, 1 institutions and Southern rights. With such eleclerations of Seward and Van Buren before the world, and such scenes taking place in Boston as are now witnessed in that city, who can be so infatpated as to say there is no agitation of the slavery question in the North, or that no danger can result from the elements now in motion in this part of the country? It is time for the friends of the Union-the friends of the constitution-the friends of regular liberty in this great republic, and helonging to both parties, to reflect on the position in which they are placed, the duty which they owe to their country, to themselves, and to their families; At d to think what course is best adapted, if not to prevent the immediate dissolution of the Union, to delay such a terrible calamity till the present generation, at all events, have passed away. We are now not only in the commencement of a political dency, but we are in the commencement of a greater and deeper agitation, and a mightier contest-a contest arising under the constitution, and involving the rights of the South, the duties of the North, and the perpetuity of this republic as it has existed since the time of Washington. What folly and nensense it is, in some of the mierable party journals, such as the Express, and Tribune, and others, to be crying out "Triumph of the whigs"-" Triumphs of the democrats"-Victory for the whigs"-" Glorious victory for the democrate," under such circumstances! Old parties are entirely broken up, and old issues have lost their meaning. Everything is resolving itself into the one great question of the day, as depicted in the inflammatory and revolutionary letters of John Van Buren and Wm. H. Seward to the Boston Abolition Convention.

Connecticut Election.

The Hartford Times (dem.) of yesterday, thus acknowledges that the democrats have lost the control of the State. Here is the amount of last Monday's work:—

By the Prepie—No election of State officers.

Congressmen—Three democrats and one whig.

Congressmen—Three democrats and one whig.
Shorifis—Four democrats and four whigs.
Legislature—House tied (three or four doubtful cases), and a whig Senate. Whig majority, on joint ballot,

THE LEGISLATURE. There are 224 members in the lower House, and 21 members in the Senate. The result of the late election appears to be as follows:-

125 Whig majority .....

One member in Sharon (a democratic town) to be heard from. The whigs claim that the House of Representatives will stand 114 whigs to 110 democrats; but we make up the following, as allowed by the democrats:-

Hoesi SENATE. Whigs. Whigh Litchfield . Middlesex 10 112 111

The town of Sharon, in Litchfield county, to be heard from, and entitled to two members, elected one democrat on Monday, and there being no choice for the other, it is presumed a democrat was elected the following day If so, according to the above returns, there would be a tie in the House; but the freesoilers will most probably hold the balance of power in the House, as they did last

THE SHORTEST TRIP TO LIVERPOOL.-The new elipper ship Typhoon, Captain Salter, which sailed from Portsmouth, N. H., on the 12th ult., arrived at Liverpool in the extraordinary short time of 13% days. She made Cape Clear in eleven and a-half days, and was off Holyhead in less than 13; and, after some detention by fog, anchored in the Mersey early on the morning the 26th. During the passage, she frequently made 1514 knots per hour, and on one day ran 346 miles, and in two days, 659 miles. This time is probably the greatest ever made by a sailing vessel. She excited a great deal of made by a sailing vessel. She excited a great deal of curiosity and admiration at Liverpool, and was visited by large numbers of people. The Typhoon, on her passage, was twice struck by lightning, which seriously injured one of the men, and slightly defaced the cabin. She is owned by D. & A. King-land, of this city, and was built by Messrs. Fernald & Pettigrew, at Portsmouth N. H., and is the largest American morehant ship affoat, being 2100 tons, carpenter's measurement.

Great Salleyo, —We find in the Liverpool papers that the Liverpool ship Themis sailed from St. Johns, N. B., to Liverpool in fourteen days; and the British vessel Moor Castle, from Pugwash, did the further distance to London in the same time. They were both deeply laden.

Prior Boat Schooner Fanny —A San Francisco paper, in speaking of the arrival of this vessel from Boston, says: — She encountered a N. W. gale in latitude IS N, and was obliged to run in for the land, and auchored three days under the bland of St. Rosa. She crossed the counter in Sci days from Boston, a performance which three days under the band of St. Ross. She crossed the equator in S3 days from Boston, a performance which, considering the size of the vessel, we believe to have been whelly unequalled. From the latitude of 16 N. to San Francisco, she had the wind a head, with the excep-tion of 35 hours, but made the passage from wharf to wharf in 108 days."

The Hon. Samuel A. Foote has been appointed by Governor Hunt, the successor to Judge Bronson, resigned -a vevy unexceptionable selection. Mr. Foote is an emi nent laywer, and upright man, possessing qualifications and traits of character especially adapting him to discharge the high functions of the station with great abil-ity and approbation. Mr. Foote has been extensively engaged in his profession for over twenty-five years. noved from Albany to this city in 1828, where he has since practised in the higher courts-having the last two years spent a portion of his time at his seat at Geneva. It is a subject of real congratulation when such a man as Mr. Foote is elevated to the Bench. Having pursued as Mr. Foote is elevated to the Bench. Having pursued his juridical studies in the office of the late Chancellor Kent. he early imbled, and now interface, the cound constitutional views of that eminent jurist. In all his personal habits and dispositions Mr. Foote is admirably adapted for judicial service—diligent and methodical—patient and mild—constant and just, we have the bessecurances, that while enlightened justice will be dispensed and the purset judicial rectitude observed, true dignity and conciliatory deportment will also be displayed by the appointee.

excitement, growing out of a contest for the Presi- Tremendous Conflagration-Great Destruction of Property, &c.

About one o'clock, this morning, a disbroke out in the store No. 180 Broadway, occupied by sleers Hudson & Robertson, which spread with such rapidity that in a comparatively short time the whole building was in flames. The fremen, with their usual promptitude, were on the spot as as the alarm was rung; but notwithstanding their vigorous efforts, the flames got ahead of them .-The next store being Cooper's gun and pistol shop, the firemen entered it for the purpose of removing any gun powder that might be contained therin. On investigation powder that might be contained therin. On investigation they found only twenty poun ds of that dangerous article, which was contained in tin kegs. As soon as this was removed they commenced playing upon the Howard House, which was in imminent danger, and which, it was seen, would soon become a prey to the fire, if the flames, which were then favored by the wind in that direction, proceeded much further. Soon it was discovered that the adjoining building, Howard's Hotel, was in flames, and the boarders therein took the alarm. Boxes trunks, bandboxes, and other articles, were immediately hurried out; and as usual in such cases, more damage was caused by the breakage than by the fire. The terror of the immates was extreme; and the consequence was, the usual amount of breakage. The powder, however, having been taken from Cooper's store, the firenen felt no apprehension of danger. They worked like beavers in combating the flames; but the fire, notwithstanding their exertions, got ahead of them; and it was not until the rear portion of the building in which it originated fell, that they were able to control the fierce element.

At about 2 o'clock, the house next the corner of John street fell with a most awful crash, and the thousands that congregated in Broadway, in front of the burning edifices, rushed away with screams which affrighted the whole crowd; but whether any one has been buried be neath the ruins, we have not as yet ascertained.

An efficient police force was in attendance during the fire, who maintained order, and enabled the firemen to perform their arduous duties.

MONEY MARKET.

THURSDAY, April 10-6 P. M. There was no change in the stock market to-day. Prices for most of the fancles were well sustained, but transactions were rather more limited than usual. Harem was the firmest stock on the list; and whatever may be the course of prices for stocks generally, this must steadily advance, until it reaches some point in the neighberhood of its intrinsic value. We have more faith in this railroad than any other connected with this city, th stock of which is at all depreciated. The receipts of the Harlem Company, in the first three months of 1848, were $60.525; 1849, $80.651; 1850, $90.593; 1851, $121.217. This shows a rapid and stendy increase. In three years the receipts have doubled, and the prospect If certainly very flattering. The gross earnings this year-1851-will be more than six hundred thousand dollars, and there is very little doubt but that the semi-annual dividend hereufur will be three per cent. It is about time the finencial affairs of this company were placed upon a firm foundation. For more than fifteen years the steek has been kicked about Wall street by speculators, and has sold at all kinds of prices. The co tion of the road has lingered along, and its affairs have been managed by eliques of brokers, who had a greater interest in operations for a fall or rise in the stock than in a speedy completion of the work entrusted to them, The road is now in good hands, it is well managed, and will seen rank among the best paying works of the kind in the country. Large amounts of the stock are daily pet upon the market with the hope of depressing prices; but purchasers are plenty, and the bears are not likely to accomplish the object they have in view. Reading Railroad remains without change. There is not so much activity in the stock as previously noticed. There are more reilers of this stock in the street, and outside operaters have lately sold to some extent for a fall Speculaters in this city, Boston and Philadelphia are playing a close game in relation to this fancy. Parties in Bo a few days since, purchased very largely, unter the impression that certain individuals here, who have been for a long time indirectly connected with the management of the road, were buying, and it was not until after they had secured several thousand shares that they found out their mistake. Present prices for Reading are very good to sell at, and prices ten per cent below those now current would be very good to buy at.

Eric Railroad is the most juffated railroad fancy on the list. Prices may, notwithstanding this fact, be carried still higher. The road will soon open to Dunkirk and speculators for a rise will avail themselves of that eccasion to make an upward movement. They way succeed, and they may not. It is our impression that the stock will be higher the first mouth after the road op ans through to Lake Erie, than it will be twelve months after.

Morris Canal is very much depressed in prices. We are informed that the canal is not open for navigation, and will not be until the 1st of June. The alteration of the planes has required more time than anticipated. The election of directors, noticed yesterday, must have been, according to the provisions of the injunction, made by the preferred stock-holders and holders of consolidated stock, or by giving one vote for every four shares of the old stock. This act acknowledges the obligation to consolidate; and elections hereafter must be made in the same way. There is no way of getting rid of the injunction, but by consolidating the old stock. Canton Co. advanced today, with sales to a moderate extent, principally for each.
Outsiders better not touch this fancy. It is equally dangerous to buy or sell on time. It may go up five per cent, or it may go down twenty per cent, any day. We advise outsiders to let it alone. Norwich and Worcester holds its own, and that is about all. There is no anxiety to sell on the part of holders, and the bears do not seem disposed to meddle with it any way. It is cheap enough at present prices to buy for a rise, or for a permanent investment. Edgeworth Company does not move much, up or down. It is largely held in this market, and no one appears at all anxious about it, satisfied that the steady im-provement in the value of the property represented is much better than any speculative movement in the stock. About twelve months ago, East Boston stock was selling at twelve dellars per share; it is now selling at thirtyone dollars per share, and is said to be worth fifty. We expect to see the same movement in Edgeworth. It last elements of improvement equally prominent, and the result must be the same. Portsmouth has probably touched the lowest point. The sale of lots will take place in a

The "Bank of the Metropelis" has commenced operaions. Its bills are in circulation in Wall street.

The steamship Africa, at this port, from Liverpool brings seven days later intelligence from all parts of Euope. The news is not important politically, financially, or commercially, but of a favorable character. The improvement in quotations for cotton is encouraging, and under the circumstances perfectly satisfactory. Breadstuffs continued dull and depressed. The growing grain crops throughout Great Britain looked promising, and the season was altogether far in advance of the corresponding one last year. Money matters remain the sai s previously reposted. There had been a collapse in the railway speculations, and most enormous rates of interest had been paid to enable parties to carry their supply of stock. There prebably will be a favorable reac on but the inflation of prices has become too great to be long sustained. United States securities had slightly improved, but the demand was only to a moderate ex-

The Manufacturers', Neptune, and National Insurance ffices, Boston, have severally declared a semi-annual dividend of ten per cent.

Pitts'urch Copper Company stock sold at 110, an adance of more than $15 per share since the middle of March. People are beginning to find out the real value of this stock, and the shares have become very scarce. The July dividend will be $5 per share, and the products of the mine warrant the expectation of a much arger one for the following six months.

The report of the Joint Committee of Ways and Means f the City Council of Baltimore advises the sale of fifteen oundred shares of the dividend stock received at different times from the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Companyof which stock the city holds now in possession, 5,698 shares. It is estimated that by the sale of fifteen hundred shares the sum of $110,000 to $112,000 might be realized, which would be sufficient to reduce the estimated tax for the payment of the interest on the internal improvement debt some nineteen and a quarter cents, and place the aggregate levy for the year 1851, at 79 cents instead of 98% cents, as estimated-being three cents in the hundred dollars less than last year, and still leaving the city in possession of 4,198 shares of dividend stock The Norristown, Doylestown, and New Hope Railroad s being pushed through to New Hope, where it will unite with the Lambertville and Trenton Railroad. The distance from Philadelphia to Norristown by railroad is 17 miles. From Norristown to Lambertville is 25 miles From Lan bertville to Somerville is about 20 miles, and from Somerville to New York, by Railroad, is 41 miles, making the entire distance from New York to Philadel phia, by that route, about 163 miles, and bringing New York nearer to Pottsville by nearly 40 miles, than by any other route. A new road from Somerville to Norristown distance of about 45 miles, would complete the line, and passengers could be transported from New York to Philadelphia, over this route, for two dollars, in about four hours. Coal could be landed in New York, from Potts ville, by this route, cheaper, probably, than by any other
